HOUSE SIMPLE RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, My esteemed office mate, the Honorable Wayne W. Connally of Floresville, has temporarily succumbed to the rigors and pressures of deciding such weighty and controversial problems, such as pay raises, horse racing, liquor by the drink, re-districting, women's rights, etc.; and

WHEREAS, The good humor, the wit, cheerfulness, compatibility, and helpfulness of our efficient statesman from Floresville will be sorely missed for a few days while he is recuperating in Brackenridge Hospital; and

WHEREAS, We wish to express our sincere sympathy to him and his lovely wife, Kay, and children and offer our services in every way possible; and

WHEREAS, We will be awaiting his return to these legislative halls with anticipation and pleasure; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the members of the Texas House of Representatives extend their sincere and best wishes to our esteemed colleague for a speedy recovery and early return to his position of ably representing the fine people of his district; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be sent to his wife and that Speaker Barnes appoint a committee to deliver a copy to the second statesman from Floresville.
